Morning Melodies - The Sweethearts of the '60s with The Swell Sisters at Penrith Leagues Club – Wednesday 5 August

Mandy, Rebecca and Jo bring the sound of the sixties back to life with three-part harmonies and songs from The Supremes, Dusty Springfield, Aretha Franklin, Petula Clark and more, at Penrith Leagues Club. Expect colourful costumes, plenty of humour, and a set list full of favourites. Tickets $22.70, which includes lunch. Note: Payment prior to the day. No refunds will be issued.

Petula and the Best of British ft. Lisa Cook at Bryan Brown Theatre, Bankstown – Tuesday 11 August

Celebrate the greatest hits from British legends including Petula Clark, The Shadows and Gerry Marsden, from catchy pop anthems to timeless classics. Tickets $25. Note: payable before the day. No refunds will be issued.

Eastern beaches drive and Malabar RSL – Wednesday 19 August

Sit back and enjoy the ride as we wind our way through Sydney's eastern suburbs, taking in sweeping coastal views, golden sand and the sparkle of water along the way. It's a beautiful stretch of coastline, best enjoyed with good company and no need to drive. We'll finish at Malabar RSL for a relaxed lunch together.

Songs of the 70s ft. Stephen Fisher-King at Casula Powerhouse – Thursday 20 August

Multi award-winning entertainer Stephen Fisher-King brings the 70s back to life at Casula Powerhouse, with hits from The Eagles, Fleetwood Mac, Elton John, Billy Joel, Queen and more. Enjoy Stephen's strong voice, stage presence, and a show that'll have you singing along from the first song. Tickets $30, 90 minutes, allocated seating. Note: Payment prior to the day. No refunds will be issued.

Kiss the Barista and South Hurstville RSL – Friday 21 August

Start the day with a coffee at Kiss the Barista, a relaxed spot on the coastal walk, before heading to South Hurstville RSL for a good lunch and some company. Regulars say the food comes in generous portions, so pace yourself between the coffee and the meal.
